NOTICE

As reported from the students and due to some technical issues have been arisen in the computer server, the students whose admission payment is pending (payment deducted but not deposited in the University account) are directed to send an email with all relevant documents (Bank Challan etc) to the Systems and Support Officer ssoofficeru@gmail.com within 24th of August positively to get the approval from the competent authority to appear in the examinations. If the bank resends the amount to the account of the students due to failure of the system, the concerned students immediately have to inform to Systems and Support Officer regarding the same. Otherwise University's Finance Branch will verify the payment details of the students and after the clearance from the Finance Branch, the results of the concerned students will be published.
